

2018 Business & Education Forum

How Business Can Affect the Talent Pipeline

Thursday, August 16 • Buffalo Marriott Niagara, Amherst, NY

AMY HINES KRAMER

AT&T NEW YORK

Amy Hines Kramer is Assistant Vice President in External Affairs for AT&T New York. In holding the top state legislative affairs slot in New York State, Kramer is responsible for developing strategies and plans for achieving AT&T's legislative objectives, as well as for reaching out to key elected officials and policymakers in the state to disseminate the company's perspective on a range of issues. Kramer works to ensure that AT&T's New York customers and public officials are always afforded the best possible service and partnering in the telecommunications and technology industries.

Prior to this assignment, Kramer was vice president, government affairs, at the Credit Union Association of New York, where she held similar and increasing responsibilities, helping the association achieve its legislative goals in the state. Before the credit union association position, Kramer was Senate Fellow/Legislative Coordinator for the New York State Senate.

Kramer serves as the President of the University Club of Albany, Advocacy and Governmental Affairs Committee Chair for the New York State March of Dimes, Board Member for St. Catherine's Center for Children, and leads the St. Pius X Children's Liturgy ministry.

Kramer has a Master of Arts degree in public history from St. Cloud State University in Minnesota, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in history from the University of Minnesota. Kramer is located in Albany, New York where she and her husband are raising a son and daughter.