About the Conference

The premiere legislative day for Human Resource Professionals in New York State has expanded to include several sessions on New York State labor and employment law.

Beginning with the popular networking reception in the historic War Room of the State Capitol, participants will hear from key Labor Department experts on current labor standard, wage & hour and unemployment insurance issues. You also have the opportunity to request a visit with one of your state elected legislators.

This legislative event is an excellent opportunity for sponsorship and networking.
