

John Olsen Internet Association, Northeast

John Olsen
Director, State Government Affairs Northeast

John has spent over a decade lobbying in New York State. He worked for many years at a prestigious and well-regarded law firm specializing in government relations before coming on board as Internet Association's New York Director in 2017. In early 2018, he assumed the role of Northeast Director where he advocates for IA's member companies and the internet industry in eleven states. IA is the only trade association that exclusively represents leading global internet companies on matters of public policy. IA's mission is to foster innovation, promote economic growth, and empower people through the free and open internet. The association believes the internet creates unprecedented benefits for society, and as the voice of the world's leading internet companies, IA works to ensure legislators, consumers, and other stakeholders understand these benefits.
