Wednesday - Friday • September 18 - 20 • The Sagamore Resort

Laurie Kelly
Vice President, Global Communications
GLOBALFOUNDRIES

Laurie Kelly is the Vice President of Global Communications at GLOBALFOUNDRIES.

As a member of the senior leadership team, she is a principal strategist and advisor to the CEO and executive staff and sets the strategic direction for GF's communications around the world. She is responsible for all aspects of internal and external communications and manages a global team responsible for promoting, enhancing, and protecting the company's brand reputation.

Laurie recently re-joined GF after running her own communications consultancy. Laurie first became associated with GF in 2010 when she joined Mubadala (ATIC) as the Associate Director of Communications based in Abu Dhabi. In 2014, Laurie moved back to the US and partnered with GF on the IBM acquisition, after which she joined the company as the VP of Corporate Marketing and Communications.

Laurie is a versatile communicator with 20 plus years of experience in developing and implementing integrated strategic communications programs and providing corporate and executive communications counsel. Prior to her five years in Abu Dhabi, Laurie she was a managing director at the global public relations firm Burson-Marsteller, where she was responsible for the East Coast Technology Practice. Before that she was vice president of global public relations at SAP based in Germany.

Laurie holds an MBA from the Tias School for Business and Society in the Netherlands; a Leadership Development Certificate from INSEAD/SAP and a BA in economics from Westfield State University.
