

2019 Annual Meeting

Wednesday - Friday • September 18 - 20 • The Sagamore Resort

Ruth H. Mahoney
Market President
Key Bank

Ruth H. Mahoney serves as Market President for KeyBank's Capital Region market, and as such is the senior executive, representative and spokeswoman, and leads the organization's economic and community development efforts. She also oversees the Retail Bank in the Capital Region.

Most recently, in addition to the Market President role she was the Sales Leader for the Private Bank in the Capital Region and Hudson Valley. Prior to that she was President of the Hudson Valley/Metro New York Market and Sales Leader for the Private Bank team in that region. She originally joined Key in 1991 as a member of Key's Management Associate Program. She has also worked for Bank of America (formerly Fleet Bank) in Albany, where she served as Private Bank senior vice president and city executive and global wealth management executive.

Mahoney earned her bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing with a minor in communications from Marist College in Poughkeepsie, NY where she was a member and team captain for the Marist College (Division I) Women's Basketball Team from 1987-91. She was also a member of the 1987 Irish National Junior Basketball Team. She formerly held Series 7 and 63 licenses and was a certified trust and financial advisor. Mahoney was named "Executive of the Year" by the Capital Region Business Review in 2017, was the Honorary Co-Chair of the 2017 American Red Cross Fire and Ice Gala, a 2016 "Athena" named by the Dutchess County Regional Chamber of Commerce, received the Corporate Partner of the Year by the Women's Club of White Plains in 2016, the Corporate Champion Award from the YWCA of White Plains in 2014, received the 914INC Award from 914INC Women in Business, honored by the Women's Enterprise Development Corp in 2013, was a Personality in 2012 for Girls Inc. of Westchester, received the Greater Capital Region Trailblazer Award by the Women's Fund in 2011, awarded Woman of Achievement by the YWCA of Schenectady in 2009, was named a Woman of Excellence by the Albany-Colonie Chamber of Commerce's Women's Business Council in 2004, received the Forty Under 40 award for the Business Review in 2003, and was a Circle of Hope recipient from the Hope House Funding Corporation in 2003.

An active member and leader of the Capital Region community Mahoney serves as a board member for Albany Medical Center, is Co-Chair for the Capital Region Economic Development Council, and on the board of the Capital Region Chamber of Commerce. She is a founding member of the Women's Fund of the Greater Capital Region, and a former board member of the Westchester County Association, Westchester Medical Center, United Way of Westchester and Putnam, United Way of Northeastern New York, St. Pius X School (Loudonville, NY), Girls Inc., the United Way of New York State, New York Bankers Association, and Albany Institute of History and Art. She is an alumnus and former co-chair of the Albany-Colonie Chamber of Commerce's Capital Leadership Program.

Ruth lives in the Capital Region with her husband Robert and her son Patrick is a student at RPI.